

MERCURY

RECOGNIZING THE RISING DEGREE OF DANGER

barometers

blood pressure
gauges

electrical switches

manometers

school
science labs

thermometers

thermostats

Mercury is hazardous and highly toxic. It contaminates everything that comes into contact with it. If you have any devices or compounds which contain mercury, now is the time to dispose of them properly. To find out how, call your local Household Hazardous Waste facility or the KDHE at 785-296-1600.

KANSAS
DON'T SPOIL IT!

A public awareness initiative from your Kansas Department of Health and Environment Printed on recycled and recyclable paper

